LINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY is now prepared to sell about ONE MILLION FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND ACRES of CHOICE FARMING LANDS,

IN TRACTS OF FORTY ACRES AND UPWARD, on LONG CREDITS AND AT LOW RATES OF INTEREST. These lands were granted by the Government to and in the construction of this Read, and are smong the richest and most fertile in the world. They extend from the north east and morth-west through the middle of the State, to the extreme south, and include every variety of climate and productions four determent those parallels of fatirade. The northern per ion is chiefly prairies, interspersed with fine groves, and to the middle of an deouthern sections timber predominates, alternating with beautiful prairies and openings.

The climate is more healtay, mild and equable than any other part of the country—the air is pure and breing, while living streams and springs of excellent unset and supplies a cheap and destrable fuel, berg furnished at many points at $2 and $4 per tun and wood can be had at the same rate per cord.

Building stone of excellent quairty slee abounds, which can be procured for a little more than the expense of transportation. The great fertility of these lands, which are black rich mold from two to fire feet deep, and gently rolling—toefr continuely to this Road, by which every facility is furnished for travel and transportation to the principal mersters North, Sound East and West, and the economy with which they can be collevated, render them the most favorable opportunity for persons of lodge-rich mersters that the comportation to the principal mersters north, Sound East and West, and the economy with which the products of those lands on be transported to the market make them much more profitable, at the prices asked, than those more remotes at flowernment rates—as the additional cost of transportation is a perpetual tax on the latter, which must be borne by the producer, in the reduced price he receives for his grain ho.

The title is perfect, and when the final payments are made, doeds to them absolute title in fee simple, free and clear of every tocumbrance, lieu or mortrage.

THE PRICE'S ARE FROM SIX TO THIRFY DOLLARS—INTEREST ONLY THREE PER CENT.

TWENTY PER CEST WILL BE DEDUCTED FROM THE CREDIT
